THE ABC’S OF DEATH:
AUTOPSIES, BURIAL & CREMATION, ETC.
EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO HELP YOUR CLIENT

Presented by
Jodi Bernstein, Attorney at Law
Joseph Stone, Funeral Director Bring Funeral Home

Description:
When the bereaved suddenly need to arrange funeral services, they face emotional and demanding decisions that need immediate attention. When they do not know what to do, or when serious disputes arise, they often call the lawyer. This CLE, presented by an attorney and a funeral director, will help you be able to answer their questions from both a legal and practical perspective.

- When is autopsy required
- Who is responsible to make final arrangements for disposition of body
- Conflict among family members
- How cremation, autopsy, organ donation affect final arrangements
- How to get a death certificate
- Is embalming required?
- Where can a body be buried or ashes be spread
- How to travel with a body or cremains, especially over state lines
- Donation to science
- Pre-arranged funeral / cremation arrangements
- Funeral considerations as a part of estate planning.
- How can a funeral director help your clients
- Consumer Protection / FTC Rule
Practical Aspects of Funeral, Burial, Cremation, etc??
