The Adult Protective Services Act ("APSA") was enacted in 1988 to protect elderly and mentally ill Arizonans from harm from those who have undertaken to give them the care they cannot provide for themselves. This CLE will provide an overview of civil APSA claims, recent legislative changes, and judicial interpretations of the Act, followed by a discussion with a panel of experts in the field of APSA litigation regarding practice points and developing issues.

Litigating Civil Claims Under the Adult Protective Services Act

Presented by
Michael L. Linton, MacBan Law Offices, P.A.
Melanie L. Bossie, Wilkes & McHugh, P.A.
Anthony J. Fernandez, Quintairos, Prieto, Wood & Boyer, P.A.
James W. Kaucher, Gust Rosenfeld, P.L.C.

The Adult Protective Services Act ("APSA") was enacted in 1988 to protect elderly and mentally ill Arizonans from harm from those who have undertaken to give them the care they cannot provide for themselves. This CLE will provide an overview of civil APSA claims, recent legislative changes, and judicial interpretations of the Act, followed by a discussion with a panel of experts in the field of APSA litigation regarding practice points and developing issues.