The following topics will be covered by the presenters and then discussed by the panel and CLE participants:

- Conservatorships and guardianships: what you need to know
- What do I do when the Plaintiff or Defendant is deceased or incapacitated?
- My client is turning 18, what do I do now?
- Settling cases with a minor or incapacitated adult client: best practices and potential pitfalls
- Structured settlements: when and why?
- Special needs trusts and Medicare set aside arrangements: What you need to know
- Special masters: who, what when and why?

* For plaintiff & defense personal injury practitioners of all experience levels. *

The following topics will be covered by the presenters and then discussed by the panel and CLE participants:

- Conservatorships and guardianships: what you need to know
- What do I do when the Plaintiff or Defendant is deceased or incapacitated?
- My client is turning 18, what do I do now?
- Settling cases with a minor or incapacitated adult client: best practices and potential pitfalls
- Structured settlements: when and why?
- Special needs trusts and Medicare set aside arrangements: What you need to know
- Special masters: who, what when and why?

* For plaintiff & defense personal injury practitioners of all experience levels. *

The following topics will be covered by the presenters and then discussed by the panel and CLE participants:

- Conservatorships and guardianships: what you need to know
- What do I do when the Plaintiff or Defendant is deceased or incapacitated?
- My client is turning 18, what do I do now?
- Settling cases with a minor or incapacitated adult client: best practices and potential pitfalls
- Structured settlements: when and why?
- Special needs trusts and Medicare set aside arrangements: What you need to know
- Special masters: who, what when and why?

* For plaintiff & defense personal injury practitioners of all experience levels. *

The following topics will be covered by the presenters and then discussed by the panel and CLE participants:

- Conservatorships and guardianships: what you need to know
- What do I do when the Plaintiff or Defendant is deceased or incapacitated?
- My client is turning 18, what do I do now?
- Settling cases with a minor or incapacitated adult client: best practices and potential pitfalls
- Structured settlements: when and why?
- Special needs trusts and Medicare set aside arrangements: What you need to know
- Special masters: who, what when and why?

* For plaintiff & defense personal injury practitioners of all experience levels. *