WORKING WITH CHALLENGING CLIENTS: TIPS TO AVOID MAKING A BAD SITUATION WORSE

Presented by

Marla L. Domino, Ph.D.
American Board of Professional Psychology (Forensic)

Description:

If you are reading this blurb you undoubtedly have had a bad experience with a difficult client. Probably more than one. Sometimes, that is because your client is in a tough spot and you are representing them when they are at their worst. Other times, your client actually is the problem. In either case, dealing with difficult clients is often a fact of life for lawyers. PCBA is, therefore, excited to offer an “out of the box” CLE on dealing with difficult clients. And, we are proud to have Dr. Marla Domino serve as a presenter. Dr. Domino, Ph.D., is a clinical and forensic psychologist with over 14 years of experience who has worked with a variety of defendants and attorneys in criminal and civil matters. Dr. Domino will provide concrete ways to respond effectively to clients who present with significant personality and interpersonal challenges. The CLE will include a free flowing dialogue and attendees are welcome (and encouraged) to tell war stories or therapeutically share a funny story.
