Description:

On September 20, 2019 Arizona’s New Limited Liability Company Act will go into effect for all newly formed, converted or domesticated LLCs and on September 20, 2020 it will go into effect for all existing LLCs. Some of the major changes in the Act involve Operating Agreements as well as fiduciary obligations of members and managers. Previously, there were no mandatory provisions for Operating Agreements that could not be changed. Now, there will be no opt out provisions for some terms. In addition, the Act codifies duties of members and managers as well as indemnification and reimbursement rights. Come learn what should be reviewed on existing LLCs prior to the effective date of Act as well as what you should know when forming a new LLC.
