Writ Readership

Established in 1982, The Writ is the official publication of the Pima County Bar Association. It is a monthly newspaper written primarily for the legal community, with circulation to 1700 attorneys, judges, legal assistants, and law faculty and students at the University of Arizona College of Law. Our readers are active in several professional, nonprofit, and civic capacities within our community. A recent survey of PCBA members revealed that four out of five respondents regularly read The Writ, consider it to be of value, and regard it as an important product of PCBA.

Notes on Display & Classified Ads

DISPLAY ADS
- All Display Ads are in color
- Ads with borders are preferred (providing better distinction between articles and advertisements)

INSERTS:
1. Needed Copies: Advertiser must provide 1700 copies of insert by Ad Submission deadline.
2. Space Limitations: The number of insert advertisements included in each issue is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Advertiser must confirm space availability and commit to inclusion of Ad Insert with PCBA Office prior to providing Insert copies.
3. Insert Size: Insert Ads that are 8 1/2 x 11-inch pages will be slightly reduced by 1/16 of an inch in length and width by our printer before the insert process to better fit within the publication (i.e., “feather trimming”). Inserts in any other format (e.g., brochures, postcards) will not need to undergo further trimming for fit. Advertisers may consider our publication printer to produce their inserts and can contact our office for more information.
4. Double-sided: Inserts may be double-sided, yet must pertain to the same product or service.

CLASSIFIED ADS
- Classified Ad listings may include announcements regarding office space, job/position announcements, and professional services of interest to the legal community.
